

CPYRGHT

Emil Heller, 60; Headed Electrical Firm Here

Emil Heller, 60, a Washington electrical contractor who installed the electrical equipment at CIA headquarters in McLean and in the State Department Building in Washington, died Thursday at Providence Hospital after a short illness.

A native of Flieden, Germany, Mr. Heller held a degree in electrical engineering from the University of Darmstadt, Germany. He came to the United States after graduation in 1932.

Mr. Heller was president of Heller Electric Co. here for more than 20 years. Besides doing the wiring on the CIA and the State Department, Mr. Heller's firm worked on the Treasury Department, McGogney Elementary School and Julia West Hamilton High School.

Mr. Heller

He was also president of Heller Electric Co. in New Jersey.

Mr. Heller was a member of the National Electrical Contractors Association, the Institute of Electrical Engineers, and the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers. He was a member of Christ the King parish in Chevy Chase where he was a member of the Holy Name Society.

He is survived by his wife, Mary, of the home address, 2721 Blaine dr., Chevy Chase; a son, William of Clinton, Md.; two daughters, Marie, of the home address, and Mrs. Raymond Bartholow of Silver Spring; five brothers, William and August, both of Washington, Herman of Flieden, Germany; Ludwig and Louis, both of Chevy Chase; three sisters, Augusta, of Washington, Mrs. Otto Atzert of Silver Spring, and Elizabeth Le of Barcelona, Spain, and two grandchildren.